

Transfer Policy & Rules for employees

- An employee must be in his or her current position at least nine months and be in good standing before he or she is eligible to apply for a transfer
- Employees are required to provide documentation that supports their performance history, such as the last performance evaluation to Human Resources department
- Employees who meet expectations of Manager Can eligible for apply transfer

HR.P.023